1. Reference request has been examined by this office, and it has been determined that the documents may not be declassified. The seriousness of any possible compromise would have to await a full damage estimate, if one is required.

2. The document listed as NIS 13A, Section 56, Dated May 1967 does not exist with such a date. The other document, NIS 13-I, Section 56, dated November 1964, should have been destroyed when the June 1959 issue was disseminated.

3. Telephone conversation with you on 14 February 1968 established that you have the June 1959 issue and that you will investigate this matter further within your office. I hope this information will be of some assistance to you.
